It does not include property acquired by inheritance or gift from a third party, property acquired before your marriage, property excluded by a valid agreement, or property directly traceable to any of these sources. Division of real estate, business, and retirement assets such as pensions can get complicated. There is no court form for dividing or dealing with these types of assets, survivor annuities, or death benefits. Consider speaking to a lawyer. Visit mdcourts.gov/divorce to see a video on How the Court Divides Jointly-Owned Property.
